HELP THE BOYS.

You men who employ boys in your offices and stores and shops want Thinkers, not Shrinkers—Workers, not Shirkers. You'd rather keep men who keep pace with your growth, who rise from the rudiments to be directing heads. Such men are worth most to you. Their scars of experience once acquired, do not have to be duplicated in a string of successors each of whom must make similar bulls and mistakes at your expense. But atrophied, anemic frames do not generate staying power. Stunted, undeveloped minds are not capable of initiative. The man whose moral fiber has not been wrought and shaped is not to be trusted with the fullest responsibilities—morality is not an instinct, but a product of environment. Only the boy who possesses strength within himself, can lend strength to your organization. While he is giving you his Youth, give him an opportunity to give you a broader, a more useful and a more profitable Manhood.

The Y. M. C. A. is adding the temper of character to thousands of young men who need its Gymnasium for their bodies, and its Ethical influence for their character—uplift. The more men it can help, the better it can help the commerce of the city. But it needs money to carry on its work. Help Yourself by helping the Y. M. C. A. to help some of your boys. —Herbert Kaufman, in Chicago Tribune.

GOVERNMENT RIFLE CASE GOES TO JURY

pled that he had, but that it was not now in his possession, but that it was in a place where he could get it. He stated that he was a brakeman on the train on February 1st, and that he learned from the soldiers that he could buy three of the rifles for five dollars each; that he talked the matter over with Conductor Wernz and his partner, Messick, and they told him to buy them; that he had five dollars with him, and when the train stopped at Trinidad, he borrowed ten dollars from a friend of his there; and after they reached the Raton station, the soldiers handed the guns to him out of the car window on the opposite side of the depot. That later Messick and Wernz each paid him five dollars; that McNamara stated to him that he did not think he was doing any harm or violating any law in buying the guns, and further said that he did not know what Wernz had done with his rifle, but that he knew that Messick's gun was at the house of Mr. Drake, and that the rifle he claimed was at Springer, New Mexico.

The witness, Williams, was subjected to a long and searching cross-examination, but defendants' counsel failed to develop any mis-statements in his evidence, and at the conclusion of the testimony of Williams, with the exception of the evidence of J. H. Green, to corroborate Williams as to the alleged confession made by Wernz, the government rested its case.

The defense then proceeded with its case by calling the defendant, Guy A. Messick, to the stand. His

Honored by Women

When a woman speaks of her silent secret suffering she trusts you. Millions have bestowed this mark of confidence on Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Everywhere there are women who bear witness to the wonder-working, curing-power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—which saves the suffering sex from pain, and successfully grapples with woman's weaknesses and stubborn ills.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG
IT MAKES SICK WOMEN WELL.

No woman's appeal was ever misdirected or her confidence misplaced when she wrote for advice, to the WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

evidence consisted of a general denial of all the evidence about the guns, never having had any conversation with Williams such as he alleged, and that he knew nothing about the charge whatever.

Conductor Wernz was the next witness, and he denied that he ever had any of the rifles in his possession. He also stated that he had had conversations with Ben Williams in regard to the missing property, but that he never told Williams that he had one of the rifles and that he threw the same in the Arkansas river.

At the conclusion of his evidence the defense closed its case.

The defendant McNamara did not take the stand.

The court then adjourned until this morning at 9:30, the court giving the attorneys one hour a side in which to address the jury. The arguments to the jury were concluded at 11:30 today and Judge W. J. Mills then instructed the jury.

It is the general opinion of those who have listened to the case that the jury will return a verdict promptly, and that McNamara will be found guilty as charged, while Messick and Wernz will be found not guilty.
